2017 Choreography

Friday night: Please remember not to talk through a prayer and never to talk through a musical prayer. Be kind and courteous and willing to help at all times. For the beginning of our program, depending on attendance, please sit quietly in the two front pews of the church. Instrumentalists sit so you can easily find your seat according to the seating chart. Please sit in such a way that you can play on all hymns.

Saturday night will be full. Please be prepared to sit in your seat according to the seating chart for the entire concert if need be.

Cases can go in the open room nearest the kitchen in Ione. All groups enter and exit through the middle isle in Ione on and off the stage. No microphone use for singers needed at Ione Church. Speaking only. Need one person to help with sound in Ione.

Sunday morning. Choir will sing up front in Sutter Creek Methodist prior to service and for special music according to the bulletin. Instruments upstairs in the balcony for the service. Choir can sit upstairs for the service and from there sing for special music.

Sunday early afternoon: There will most likely be lunch still going on when we get to Nazarene Church. So please stay out of the Fellowship Hall until after the program unless helping with kitchen or general staff. Cases go in room 11 on corner nearest middle double doors at Nazarene, also next to kitchen. Please sit up front in the first two pews. There should be enough room at Naz for the instrumentalists to remain in the front pews until time to sit according to the same seating chart. Sit in such a way that you can participate in hymn singing and playing. Choir and handbells enter and exit using the hallways in the back of the stage at Nazarene. Vocalists please be ready to help with sound check when we get to Naz. Need a few people to help with running sound as microphones help in this church. We have 5 cordless mics to use at Naz.

Of the increase of his government and of peace there will be no end, on the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time forth and forevermore. Narration at the conclusion of the Hymn:

Narration 1Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?2For he shall grow up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.

3He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: a nd we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

4Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

After Jesus loves me:

Narration: 6All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

7He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth.

8He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.

9And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

10Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

Narration 1Praise ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary: praise him in the firmament of his power. 2Praise him for his mighty acts: praise him according to his excellent greatness. Praise Him with song and spiritual hymns.
3Praise him with the sound of the trumpet and all the instruments of brass: praise him with the psaltery and harp.
4Praise him with the timbrel and with dance: praise him with stringed instruments and even organs.5Praise him upon the loud cymbals: praise him upon the high sounding cymbals. Even the flute and all woodwinds and reeds.
6Let every thing that hath breath praise the LORD. Praise ye the LORD.

Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? 14And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. 15He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? 16And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. 17And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

The Interfaith Community of Choirs Presents

A Festival of Carols

The 18th Annual Benefit for the Interfaith Food Bank of Amador County

November 17, 6pm November 18, 5pm Ione United Methodist Church Ione, Ca. November 19, 2pm Church of the Nazarene Sutter Creek, Ca.

In 2006 the U.S. government replaced "hunger" with the term "food insecure" to describe any household where, sometime during the previous year, people didn't have enough food to eat. By whatever name, the number of people going hungry has grown dramatically in the U.S. Finding food has become a central worry for millions of Americans. One in four people report running out of food at least once a year.

Today- Right Now in Amador County there is a poverty rate of 13%. In 2016 The Interfaith Foodbank provided food to 2305 Families! That is a staggering number, I know, I see it every day. Our clients are your neighbors, your friends, maybe your elementary school teacher or your grandmothers close friend. Last year over 3200 Adults, almost 1,000 Seniors, and nearly 1150 children were fed by us.

You can help us continue this fight by becoming a monthly sustaining donor of any amount you can afford. Your monthly contribution will provide a steady stream of funding during the year when donations become low and inconsistent. For more information or to become a "Friend of the Foodbank", please visit our website, www.feedamador.org, email – feedamador@feedamador.org or call 209-267-9006.

Please call for a tour or to join over 200 dedicated volunteers giving almost 18,000 hours last year.

No one should face the day hungry and your gift can help us ensure that will not happen. Your gift tonight or any time is truly a blessing appreciated by many.

With heartfelt thanks for your continued support, I wish you a blessed holiday season.

The Interfaith Community of Choirs is a non profit organization with the Amador Community Foundation. Since its beginning it has gathered local musicians both young and old to share music in this annual fund raising concert. The ICC supports Interfaith Food Bank in response to . Please consider how you can be apart of both groups in the following year. The ICC wishes you a very blessed Thanksgiving and prays the peace of Christ will be with you now and always!

Colossians 3:15-17

And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Come, ye thankful people, come, Raise the song of harvest home;All is safely gathered in, Ere the winter storms begin;God our Maker doth provide For our wants to be supplied;Come to God's own temple, come, Raise the song of harvest home.

All the world is God's own field, Fruit unto His praise to yield;Wheat and tares together sown, Unto joy or sorrow grown;First the blade, and then the ear, Then the full corn shall appear:Lord of harvest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the Lord our God shall come, And shall take His harvest home; From His field shall in that day All offenses purge away; Give His angels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast; But the fruitful ears to store In His garner evermore.

Even so, Lord, quickly come, Bring Thy final harvest home; Gather Thou Thy people in, Free from sorrow, free from sin, There, forever purified, In Thy garner to abide; Come, with all Thine angels come, Raise the glorious harvest home. God of our fathers, Whose almighty hand Leads forth in beauty all the starry band Of shining worlds in splendor through the skies Our grateful songs before Thy throne arise.

Thy love divine hath led us in the past, In this free land by Thee our lot is cast, Be Thou our Ruler, Guardian, Guide and Stay, Thy Word our law, Thy paths our chosen way.

From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence,Be Thy strong arm our ever sure defense;Thy true religion in our hearts increase,Thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

Refresh Thy people on their toilsome way, Lead us from night to never ending day; Fill all our lives with love and grace divine, And glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine. Silent night, holy night! All is calm, all is bright. Round yon Virgin, Mother and Child. Holy infant so tender and mild, Sleep in heavenly peace, Sleep in heavenly peace

Silent night, holy night! Shepherds quake at the sight. Glories stream from heaven afar Heavenly hosts sing Alleluia, Christ the Savior is born! Christ the Savior is born

num.icchoirs.org

Silent night, holy night! Son of God love's pure light. Radiant beams from Thy holy face With dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus Lord, at Thy birth Jesus Lord, at Thy birth
